Conditional offers will be sent in the summer term. Once results are confirmed, students will be either offered or declined a place on their chosen course depending on whether they have met the entry requirements for Ranelagh Sixth Form. This is separate to their acceptance into the academy. Conversely students who are not offered a place or decide not to start on the academy programme, can still be accepted into Ranelagh Sixth Form provided they have met the entry requirements.

The following section of the application form should be completed by your Tutor or Head of Year in your current school.

This student is applying for place in the Sixth Form at Ranelagh School.
